

RULES OF AUCTION / CONDITIONS OF SALE - FIREARMS

All goods which are numbered in lots or pointed out by the Auctioneer will be sold to the highest bidder, without reserve, or subject to confirmation after the sale. Should an item be sold subject to confirmation it will be announced by the Auctioneer on the fall of the hammer and the letters "STC" will be written onto the lot number and vending roll.

All firearms will be sold subject to a 7day confirmation period.

Payment to be made during or immediately after the sale by way of bank guaranteed cheque or internet payment, unless previously arranged with the Auctioneer.

All the firearms will remain in possession of the Auctioneer until a valid firearms license is handed to the auctioneer.

The buyer will be given a period of 12 months to obtain his/her firearms license.

Should the buyer not be able to obtain a valid license he/she will forfeit all monies paid.

All goods are sold "voetstoots", in whatever condition they may be, by the acceptance of a bid and no guarantee whatsoever is given.

Descriptions and information in adverts, catalogues or given verbally are given in good faith.

The Auctioneer does not hold himself responsible for any errors of description of quality or quantity. A bid shall be taken as proof that the bidder has acquainted himself with the lot for which he bids.

No bidder shall be allowed to bid unless he has registered and has a bidders number of his own. No item will be moved from one bidder's invoice to another.

In the event of a dispute arising about any bid, the Auctioneer may use his discretion and put the lot up again for auction. His decision as well as the vending roll of sale will be regarded as final in all cases.

No goods may be removed during the time of the sale and must be paid for in full before they are removed from the premises.

The selling price excludes VAT.

Goods to be auctioned will be at the discretion of the Auctioneer and he reserves the right to combine, divide or withdraw any lot.

The Auctioneer reserves the right of regulating the bidding, also of refusing any bidding and withdrawing any lot from the sale or stopping the sale altogether.

If the purchaser fails to carry out any of his obligations under the conditions of sale, the goods may again be put up for sale and the purchaser shall be responsible for any loss sustained by reason of his default.

If the Auctioneer or seller makes any mistakes when selling, such mistakes shall not be binding upon either parties, but shall be rectified.

If the Auctioneer believes that a bidder is unable to pay the purchase price, he may refuse to accept the bid, or accept it provisionally until the bidder shall have satisfied him immediately that he is able to pay the purchase price. On refusal of a bid under such circumstances the item may immediately be put up for auction.

Commission: 10 % Commission (plus VAT) is payable by the Purchaser.
